VOL. XXXII.

STANFORD, KY. FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1905. 3 P. M

NO. 98

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Charles Dickens' full name was Charles John Hoffman Dickens. Capt. Robert L. Bowen, now commandant of Calais at West Point, is a native of Texas. James R. Randall, who wrote "My Maryland," is still living. His home is at Augusta, Ga. Joseph W. Polk, of Missouri, will be the guest of honor at the banquet of the Missouri Society, of New York, on March 10. Princess Melinda Mitchell, a descendant of Massachusetts, is being entertained in Boston by the Daughters of the Revolution. King Leopold, of Belgium, who has never signed a death warrant during the thirty-nine years of his reign, thus keeps the promise made his mother on her deathbed. Baron Henri de Rothschild, who spent a fortune on a free hospital in Paris, determined long before he was of age, to become a physician and minister to the needy. David R. Francis, former president of the late Louisiana Purchase Exposition, has a white elephant on his hands in the shape of the Chinese building, presented to him by the Emperor of China. It cost $130,000.

A well-known preacher recently spoke at a religious service at a jail. He noticed that one of the convicts seemed extraordinarily impressed. After the service he sought him out and continued the good work by remarking:

"My dear sir, I hope you will profit by my remarks just now and become a new man."

"Indeed I will," was the reply. "In fact, I promise you that I will never commit another crime, but will lead an exemplary life to my dying day." "Good," said the minister, "but are you sure you will be able to keep the promise?" "Oh, yes," was the cheerful reply of the convict. "I'm in jail for life." Philadelphia Record.

The largest diamond in the world is not of the crystalline sort used as a gem. If it were its value would be enormous, for it is seven times larger than the famous Victoria diamond, the largest of modern finds, which was sold for $1,500,000. Its value depends upon the use to which it can be put when broken up for it is of the amorphous kind, known technically as carbo.

Mrs. J. F. Ware is dead in Boyle

CRAB ORCHARD.

Mr. Gilkerson is going to convert his grist mill into a spoke and rim factory. Lyne Bros. sent out a neat little advertising paper this week called the Crab Orchard Courier. It is reported that Milton Estes has bought the store room now occupied by D. C. Payne, and the one adjoining from Mrs. Jane Buchanan and will open a grocery store and beef shop. Morgan's Comedy Co. gave an entertainment at the High School building Monday and Tuesday evenings. The musical feature of the program was furnished by the Crab Orchard band.

Will Hanford, of Hyden, is visiting his brother, Bruce Hanford, at the Springs Hotel. Miss Pitman, of Parisville, is a guest of Mrs. Rhoda Higgins and family. Dr. Parry, of Procherville, was in town this week. His friends here regret to know that he will have for fast thereafter soon to make his home. Robert Gaines, of Lancaster, was here with relatives recently. Sam King will leave shortly to attend school at Lexington. Mr. Ramsey remains ill at his rooms after the dinner. Mr. J. W. Guss, is quite ill. W. A. Brunk, of Chicago, is in town this week. Mrs. S. E. Estes is the belle of her mother, Mrs. Grove Cook, who continues very feeble. Dr. Goodman, wife and little son are guests at the Springs Hotel. Rev. Jordan, of Procherville, was able to be in town this week. Mrs. Henry Pettus and children are visiting at St. Mary's. Mrs. Laura Moore accompanied Charles Higgins and family to Buchanan, Mich. Monday. Louis Drillon has moved to the latter's property on M. Varson Street. Mr. Hunt, of Washington City, was here Tuesday taking depositions in the war claim case of the Baptist church.

Hearing a noise in the pantry, Mrs. Jerrams opened the door softly and went in. Her youngest son was standing on a chair, with his back to her, helping himself to the contents of a glass jar. "What are you doing, Clifford?" she asked. Clifford turned around. His face was smeared from chin to cheek with something deeply and heavily red, but the light of truth shone in his blue eyes.

"I cannot tell a lie, mamma," he said. "I'm eating raspberry jam." Holly Van, under sentence of death for murder, escaped from jail at Dallas, Tex.

THE HOME OF VINOL

To Mothers of Ailing Children

Many little boys and girls in this town are weak, thin-legged, hollow-cheeked and bloodless. We wish every mother could know what our Vinol will do for such children. We promise that it will create flesh, build them up and make them strong, robust and rosy. If it fails to do this we will cheerfully return all the money paid us for the Vinol taken. On these terms it's your duty to try it.

NEWS NOTES.

Elizabethtown is to have a new City Hall building.

Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick has been adjudged a bankrupt.

Fire at Lincoln, Neb., destroyed property worth $130,000.

The worst snowstorm of the season is raging in New York City.

A disastrous fire visited Mt. Sterling, this being estimated at $100,000.

Walter L. Campbell, the blind mayor of Youngstown, O., is dead of apoplexy.

Taunted because he had lost an arm in an accident, a Louisville youth committed suicide.

A quarrel over an estate caused a Cleveland man to fatally shoot his brother and a policeman.

An American eagle was killed in Nelson county. It measured six feet six inches from tip to tip.

Cliff Walton was found dead in a thicket near Lodi, Ky., under circumstances indicating murder.

Olaf A. Thorpe, who was the first man to send a boat from Chicago to Europe with merchandise, is dead.

Thomas M. Hill, prominent as a church worker at Grassy, S. C., is under arrest charged with embezzlement.

In 1904 three times as many adults as children died in Lexington. The number of deaths of the former was 26, of the latter 76.

The saloons of Holsgroveville closed their doors for good Saturday night, the result of the local option election held some months ago.

John Chensault, of Chattanooga, in jail at Knoxville, Tenn., on a charge of drunkenness, committed suicide by hanging himself with a sheet.

The George Peabody School for Teachers at Nashville is to receive $1,000,000 under a decision of the trustees of the Peabody education fund.

A special grand jury at Lexington began taking evidence in the case of the Breathitt county parties alleged to be implicated in the killing of James Coker.

In a drunken brawl Charles T. Erdman, son of G. W. Erdman, a well-known Louisville citizen, killed Geo. Baehner, cutting the latter's jugular vein with a pocket knife.

At Winchester, Judge Benton overruled motions of both plaintiffs and defendants for new trials in the Marcum-Hargis damage suit. An appeal in each case was granted to the Court of Appeals.

While kneeling in prayer at the Hope Rescue Mission with fellow-unfortunates whom he was trying to save, George Hargis died of apoplexy. He was a famous character of Louisville, who, since his conversion, had done active mission work.

Johann Hoch, the bigamist, swindler and murderer, for whom the Chicago police are looking, is now known to have been the husband of 19 wives. Cries exist pointing to the probability that there are others. The police have evidence that Hoch disposed of a number of his wives by means of poison.

The Fayette county special grand jury has returned indictments against James Hargis, Alex. Hargis, Elbert Hargis, Ed Callahan and Jesse Spicer, charging them with conspiracy to murder James Coker, Tins. Marshal of Jackson, who was killed in July, 1902. Bench warrants have been issued for the arrest of all the indicted men.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Absolutely Harmless.

The fault of giving children medicine containing injurious substances, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.

Arthur Henry Milligan, who had several aliases, was arrested at Racine, Wis. He detailed to the police a story of how he and Florence O. Graves, the woman who took Catholic acid and died in Milwaukee Monday, had agreed to commit suicide together. He said that after the woman had taken the poison he watched her death agonies and his courage failed him. He fled.

Greatly in Demand.

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, Ky. 25c, guaranteed.

"Why do you call your auto a he?"

"Because it is always breaking down at critical moments, raising the devil most of the time and keeps me broke."

—Life

"Why is an author different from every other animal in the world?"

"Because his tale comes out of his head."

SOMERSET.

E. A. Humble purchased several lots in South Somerset.

H. Hopper & Co. have opened a restaurant at Somerset Street.

Wednesday was the coldest day that Somerset has experienced in five years.

The revival at the Christian church is still in progress. There have been 10 additions so far.

A bucket shop was opened here Wednesday by Daville parties. Their office is in the Smith building next to the postoffice.

About 100 workmen of the Kentucky Lumber Co., of Burnside, are on a strike for higher wages. The mill has been closed since the beginning of the strike.

The first edition of the "Somerset Idea" came out Jan. 25th. This paper is published by the pupils of the High School and they deserve great praise for their maiden issue.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis spent several days here after their return from a bridal tour through the South. Jim is looking happy and says he advises all young men to take his step.

The following work was done by the city council Monday night: A license fee of $15 for a bucket shop was granted. Resolutions were passed extending Hawkins Avenue to College Street. Main and Vernon were ordered repaired and building permits granted to Dr. Allen, S. G. Hishop and Tom Jasper.

Vernon Richardson, of the Daville News, was here Friday. Norman Wade was in Cincinnati Sunday and Monday.

Several of Somerset's young men attended the dance and banquet at Hustonville Thursday evening. Miss Lina Kennedy, of Texas, arrived Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs. M. C. Williams.

The best play that was ever put on the stage here was that of Walker Whiteside in "David Garrick's Love," which played to a good audience Tuesday evening. Mr. Whiteside is an actor of great success and the people of Somerset should have shown their appreciation more by turning out better.

Mrs. Thatcher and Wade are to be congratulated on getting him here.

The charter members of the social club of Somerset purchased from the old social club all their furniture and a new club will be organized. This club will be composed of about 10 of the old and young men of Somerset. The old club rooms will be used and will be fitted up with this furniture and some new that will be purchased. One of the rooms will be a reading room and will be equipped with books, magazines and daily papers. Another will be used as a dancing hall and the third a pool and billiard room. The club will be open to visitors and those who are not members three times a week if accompanied by a member of the club.

HUSTONVILLE.

Union prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church, to which all are cordially invited.

The coldest weather of the winter is with us, affording another opportunity for knocking out the ice. Man is the "good old snow time."

Miss Ann Ellis, of Stanford, is visiting the family of J. A. Blain. Wallace Hall is at home for the season, having graduated in the R. R. business.

A 30-acre farm with good buildings, fine water, fine stone house in a splendid community, for rent very cheap. Quick please; call on W. R. Williams.

The Beaver Creek Oil & Gas Co. had another good well to come in this week and they are to be congratulated upon their good luck in never having struck a duster in drilling 15 wells on their Wayne county leases.

W. C. Greening, of Lexington, was visiting friends here the past week. Lee Anderson, of Paducah, who lived at Turnerville 40 years ago, and who married the daughter of L. D. Goode, was looking up old friends and relatives in the West End last week.

Representative J. M. Alverson is not only voting the sentiment of the people of Lincoln county in opposing the new capitol building being located at the old meadow town of Frankfort, but fully 75 per cent. or over, of the people of the State who are waiting for their rights under the constitution to have a voice in its location.

A Grim Tragedy

It is daily enacted in thousands of homes as death claims its victims another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes:

"My wife had consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong."

It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1 by Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, Ky.
